

Peter McKenzie, Consultant

Peter is a Director of a consultancy specialising in internal audit and risk management and provides services to both the public and private sectors.

Peter was formerly Head of Risk Management and Business Assurance at Accent Group for five years and has been a career Internal Auditor for over 20 years.

Peter is a Governor and Chair of the Audit Committee at Askham Bryan College in York and is a former Director of the IIA UK and Ireland. He was Chair of the IIA North East District for many years and still sits on their Committee.

Peter has been on HIAF's Executive Committee for several years and is committed to increasing the profile of internal auditing.